

What if the login screen shakes off my name and password?

- 1. Be sure you entered your name and password correctly. Delete the entire name and password and try again. Don't simply add a missing letter or delete an extra letter, start from scratch.*
- 2. Make sure the cables on the side of the computer are connected properly.*
- 3. Restart the computer and try again.*

